Chapter 1 by Imagine_Krayt_Dragons

Maybe it was the idea of arranged marriage that got her, or maybe it was just her arranged marriage. How they had kept things under raps was beyond her, but they'd done it; offering twenty-thousand American dollars for a genetically-profitable match to the son of a wealthy British scientist, she wasn't sure who its was saying worse about, America in general of her psycho of a father. You'll be fine. Her father had insisted after more-or-less selling his only child. So now here she was, not fine. Not fine with being BRED. 'I am not a dog!
